$902,461.42

South Carolina Free Will Baptists broke all records in their giving during the year 2000. Over Nine Hundred thousand dollars was given to support the work of God in South Carolina and around the world during this past year (An increase of $133,000 over 1999's total of $769,588.52 [$719,287.65 in 1998]).

Only Heaven knows how many souls were reached with the Gospel and how many lives were changed because South Carolina Free Will Baptists have such generous hearts. And it is wonderful to see more and more of our people join in this effort (188 Churches and individuals contributed to the South Carolina Plan of Support last year compared to 164 In 1999). {A complete list of contributors is listed later in this paper.}

Saturday, December 2, 2000 was a red letter day in the life of Missionaries Andy and Andrea Moore. Despite the fact that snow, sleet, and rain pelted the area, a large crowd of family and friends gathered at Pleasant Acres FWB Church in New Bern, N C to commission them as Missionaries.

There was a wonderful moving of the Spirit of God in the service as the choir sang, as Pastor Dean Dobbs brought the message, as Rev Nate Ange charged the church, and as Pastor Earl Hendrix prayed the prayer of Dedication. From the testimonies to the fellowship time it was evident that much prayer, preparation, and dedication had gone into this service and the Holy Spirit was pleased to be an honored guest.

The Moores departed for language school January 2nd, 2001. Pray for God to guide and strengthen them as they prepare to win souls in Brazil.

The Informer is the official bi-monthly publication of the South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptists. Address all correspondence to Rev Mike Jones, Editor, P O Box 13266, Florence, SC 29504 or call (843) 662-5010. Mike@scfwb.com

State Moderator, Rev. Sherwood Lee, shivers in the cold as he takes part in breaking ground.

A bitterly cold day in December greeted the large crowd who attended the ground breaking services for the Free Will Baptist Bible College but it could not quench the vision and determination of the people as they rejoiced in God's provision of this new location. A large number of denominational, political, and local dignitaries joined the crowd in this celebration as everyone looked with excitement to the time these rolling hills bloom with new buildings and echo with the sound of excited students being trained for the Lord.

Darin Miles, President of the Student Body (and son of Rev and Mrs Donnie Miles of Peace FWB Church, Florence, S C) expresses appreciation

Southeastern Free Will Baptist College continues to grow as they experienced a record enrollment of 181 for the fall semester of 2000.

The annual Pastor's Retreat in January of 2001 featured nine speakers and had 85 men in attendance. Upcoming events include the Principals Recruitment Conference (Feb 15), Get Acquainted Days (April 5-7), Camp Meeting (April 16-18), Golf Tournament (April 19) and Graduation (May 11)

Saturday, March 10, 2001 9:00am -Noon
Call Eddie Hobbs at 662-8682 for more details

CAMP MEETING FIRST FWB CHURCH CHESTER

Pastor Jimmy Sanders invites you to attend the 2nd annual Camp Meeting Services at First FWB Church of Chester- January 21-25, 2001. Rev Jack Lassiter will be the Evangelist. Services begin each week night at 7:00pm.

Monday Night will also be the dedication service for their new Family Life/Fellowship Building. (Refreshments will be served each night following the services).

SPECIAL MUSIC:

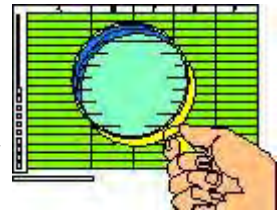

Monday- Rev Billy Fields and the Parkway Baptist Church Choir.

Tuesday- New Horizon and the Chester First FWB Church Choir

Wednesday- Bo Dumpford and the Faith FWB Church Choir

Thursday- The Greenses and the Valley Falls FWB Church Choir.

New SCPS Forms- A re-designed "South Carolina Plan of Support" form is being distributed to church treasurers. With the new forms we are trying to make it easier for Treasurers to understand where their funds are being designated, and also give them more room to add items that are being supported by their church.

The Promotional Office is seeking input from Treasurers during the month of January concerning their likes and dislikes about the form. Hopefully, the revised form that will be our standard for this year will be available at the State Meeting.

The Promotional Office APPRECIATES the hard work and tireless efforts of church treasurers across our state and would like to recommend that Churches consider having a "Treasurer Appreciation Day" sometime this year- a day to express appreciation to the Church treasurer verbally and with a gift (A Plaque and/or a gift certificate would be nice). Church treasurers of Free Will Baptist Churches in South Carolina handle many million dollars a year and put forth much extra effort in counting and distributing these funds and are to be commended for the faithful ministry they perform.

Gifts to THE PLAN of Support for Foreign Mission grew in 2000 by almost $100,000 (Glory!) ($238,900.12 was given thru the PLAN in 1999). The two missionaries we added this year (Aycock and Moore) have greatly increased budgets because of transitional expenses but they should return to "normal" next year. Thank you for your generous giving.

Franks, Jr to seek new Ministry- Dave and Becky Franks, Jr returned to the United States in September of 1999 due to Health needs. In December of 2000 they met with the Board of Foreign Missions and decided to remain on stateside assignment as they explore other ministry opportunities. The Foreign Mission Board expressed gratitude for the years of dedicated service which Dave and Becky have rendered in Uruguay

Low Country Report by Mrs Dessie Jones (Pastor Phillip Jones' better half)- Low Country Church continues to do well. We had our first Watch Night service this year with Carlisle Hanna in attendance. He is such an encouragement to our church and we highly value his expertise and experience with church building. This was a good way to end the old year and begin a new one. Steps have been placed at the back and side doors of the church, staining of the cabinets is reaching completion, and things are looking up more and more all the time.

Very soon a lot of effort will go into landscaping. We need a good parking area because our lot is nothing but mud! Funds are greatly needed to help with this. We are very grateful to everyone who has prayed for us or sent an offering. We believe God has plans for this area.

Pastor Calvin Turner was all smiles the first Sunday in January. That was the Sunday he awarded a Bible to a young man (Aaron McBee) who had perfect attendance (and a young lady who had only missed 2 Sundays- Jordan Williams). Part of the reason for his smile was because Aaron is his grandson. But the main reason he was so happy was because when Aaron began coming to Church regularly he influenced his parents to come - and now they are actively involved in the ministry of New Covenant FWB Church in Spartanburg. "And a little Child shall lead them" (Is 11:6).

Pastor Howard Johnson and the congregation of Calvary FWB Church in Union, S C don't just talk about doing something positive for their young people; they do something. There was not a Christian School in their county so they began one! The bottom half of Calvary FWB Church is ideally suited for such an endeavor and the Pastor's wife "volunteered" to be the principal for the present. This first year they only have 8 students but they look for continued growth.

Calvary has also completed some extensive remodeling and it is a beautiful Church with tremendous room for growth and expansion- which they hope they will soon need with the great spirit and great singing that are part of their services.

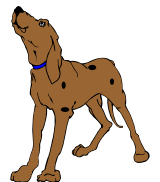

"Princess Paula" is recovering from her Surgery very well. The Doctor said the that the cancer was confined to the area that was removed and we are setting up the radiation treatments now. THANK YOU for all the prayers and support. It means more than words can ever say.

Special THANKS to the members of the Central Conference. They sent a gift of $500 to help pay for her medical bills- that arrived the day we found she had cancer! (God's timing is always just right- Glory!). Then they gave an additional gift of $500 at their annual Conference! (God is so good!)

All these gifts are being placed into the Paula Jones Medical Fund so that adequate records can be kept about how they are dispersed (Only for medical expenses).

The 7th Annual Benefit Hunt for the Free Will Baptist Children's Home will be held March 2-3, 2001 at the Low Country Fox Run in Manning, SC. The entry fee is $25 per hound and a benefit auction will be held the day of the hunt. All proceeds will go to the Children's Home. Call Wayne Oxendine at (803) 452-5303 or the Children's Home at (843) 659-2880 for more info.

TAX TIPS- Here are some Tax Tips that may help the Church or minister right now (Taken from "The Income Tax Guide for Ministers"- - on sale now at the Free Will Baptist Book Store for $14.40).

- Churches must issue W-2 forms for their Pastor. Failure to do so can result in a $50 penalty for the Church- and, as reported in another publication, the Pastor's chances of being audited increase 500% if a 1099 is issued instead of a W-2.
- Pastors should designate their pay according to IRS guidelines at the first Church Conference of the year in order to obtain tax benefits for that year. Failure to do so results in having to pay taxes on your complete salary.

- An adequate system of accounting is required in order for designated money to be exempt from taxes. A finance committee should be appointed by the church and the minister should produce adequate records to justify the amount of reimbursable expenses he is claiming.

Information Note- When you give money thru the Promotional Office to Ministry or Missions your name or the name of your church is assigned to that money all the way to the final destination of that money. The reason you do not get an acknowledgment of your money from anyone other than the Promotional Office is because that would give you a double or triple tax receipt if everyone acknowledged it. Rest assured, however, that the Missionaries or the Ministry know every individual or church who has contributed to their account.

STATE WAC MEETING
Saturday, March 17, 2001
First FWB Church of Inman.

This year the state WAC has adopted a project of raising $5,000 for KIDS AND KITCHEN: A Thousand ($1,000) is earmarked for the FWB Children's Home in Turbeville to go toward their building fund. The other $4,000 will be given to our Aiken Home Mission work for the completion of their kitchen (You know how we Free Will Baptists like to eat. So a Free Will Baptists Mission needs a good kitchen!)

Any excess money (and Mrs. Gwen knows there will be excess!!) will be voted on for distribution at the meeting.

A new Format will be used at this meeting with registration at 9:00am and services beginning at 9:30am.
Special Speaker will be Mrs ASHLEY HARTLEY.

Mrs. Gwen said she was looking for a great crowd and wonderful services so get your group together and come to Inman expecting a blessing.

CALLING ALL SOUTH CAROLINA FREE WILL BAPTIST PASTORS who love to write. Your Free Will Baptist Book Store and Promotional Office want to make the writings of our pastors available to everyone in our state. We have a section set up in the Book Store for your books and study course materials and we will work with you on selling these to the general public. We believe the time has come for material to be published from the right point of view- The Free Will Baptist Perspective - and we want to encourage that in any way we can.

One of our most prolific writers, Pastor Robert Rose (Mt Elon FWB Church of Pamplico) has several booklets available as well as some Bible Study Notebooks. Contact the Promotional Office for more details; and crank up those word processors!

Rev Daggett Duncan, pastor of New Vision FWB Church in Rock Hill wishes to THANK everyone who prayed for him during his recent bouts with sickness. He is now doing much better and is available for Revival meetings and special services. Contact him at (803) 325-1089.

PASTORAL CHANGES:

- Rev Joe Cagle to Little Bethel FWB Church, Johnsonville from Hillside FWB Church, Florence
- Rev Allen Goodman to South Conway FWB Church, Conway from Freedom FWB Church, Ladson.
- Rev Mike Gerald to Riverside FWB Church, Myrtle Beach from Rains FWB Church, Rains

Did you Know:

-- Brazil is the 5th largest country in the world with 173 million people. It is predominately Roman Catholic and Spiritists with only 11.5% evangelical Christians. The official language is Portuguese.

Free Will Baptists have ministered in Brazil for over 40 years and now have 14 organized FWB Churches and 9 FWB missionary couples (4 of which are supported in part by South Carolina Free Will Baptists)

-- When the expected 5000 Free Will Baptists gather in India on March 5th for the Golden Jubilee of FWB Mission work in India that it will be the largest gathering of FWB ever outside of the United States.

ROLL CALL SUNDAY
MARCH 25, 2001

The 18th Annual Roll Call Sunday (Sponsored by the National Home Mission Department) will be Sunday, March 25, 2001. Begin praying now that God would use this day to see as many souls saved as possible.

(If your Church has scheduled another day in MARCH as your big day then use that day for Roll Call if you desire. But plan a big day in March to reach your community for Christ.)

HISTORICAL GLIMPSES

By Historical Commission Chairman, Rev Joe McKnight

(The Continuing story of South Carolina Free Will Baptists pioneer, Redding Moore as he helped establish the first Free Will Baptists Churches in South Carolina)

Available records indicate that Ann Moore, first wife of Redding Moore, must have died sometime between 1828 - 1830. The 1830 Census reveals that the Moore household contained one female between twenty and thirty years of age. That could not have been Ann, since Samuel, her oldest child, had been born approximately 1803. The next documented reference to Redding Moore's wife by name is in his Last Will and Testament. This was dated on June 15, 1849. The executors were Nancy Moore, W. J. Moore and C. J. Crawford. However, she would not complete the duties of executrix of that will. An addendum to the document states "I, Nancy Moore, late widow of Redding Moore, now Nancy Johnson, having by my marriage with Harper Johnson forfeited my claim to the estate under the will of Redding Moore and whereas I was heretofore one of the exors of said will, and acted after qualifying as such; now therefore I hereby relinquish my action as executrix under same will this 11 Nov 1852."

The mysteries surrounding the Moores grow deeper with the introduction of the Harper Johnson family. Harper Johnson was apparently an older man, probably close in age to Redding Moore. He lived in Clarendon County. Members of the Johnson family have a tradition that their ancestors arrived in South Carolina from Texas, not North Carolina. Yet, the fact that connections existed between the two families is certain. The land on which the Old Mother Church, considered to be the first Free Will Baptist Church founded in South Carolina, was built was land given by the Johnson family. Harper Johnson had a male relative, most likely a son, named Blany Johnson. Redding and Nancy would name their first son Blany Johnson Moore. There was also an older daughter named Nancy F., and a son named Joseph Jolly. These children would join four older brothers and sisters who were the children of Redding and Ann. The unresolved questions include how, when, and why the Johnsons and Moores became connected.

STATE ASSOCIATION TO MEET FEBRUARY 22-23, 2001

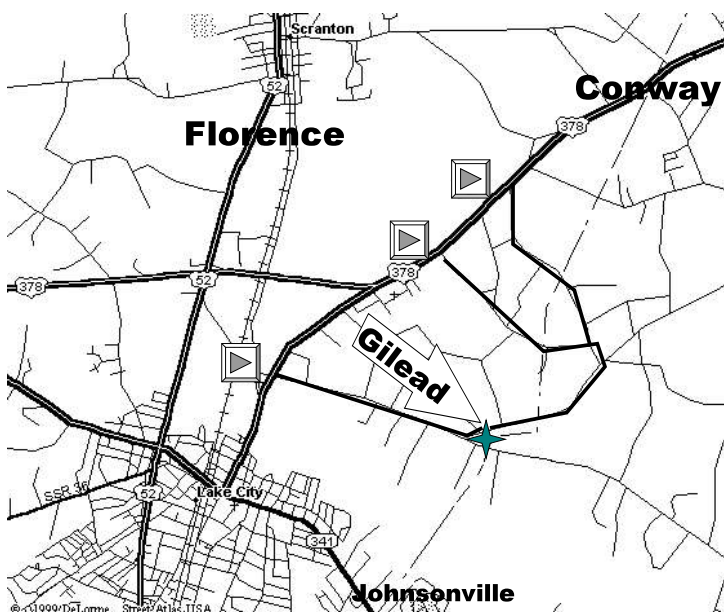

The 59th Session of the South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptists will convene at Gilead FWB Church, Lake City, S.C. on Thursday and Friday, February 22-23, 2001 (The General Board will meet on Wednesday, February 21st at Gilead FWB Church). We are looking for an exciting time of Fellowship and Preaching of the Word of God; and even the business session is expected to be a time of great rejoicing as we celebrate the good reports from the various state and national representatives.

Note- The Holiday Inn in Lake City inadvertently gave the Promotional Director their Fax numbers instead of their voice numbers for the last "Informer". The correct numbers are (843) 394-8400 / 1-800-465-4329. Note also that the $54 per night rate is a Special State Convention rate. The 800 number may not give you this rate but if you will tell the clerk when you check in that you are part of the State Association of Free Will Baptist then you will receive this rate.

MEALS: The Eastern Conference will provide the Noon meals on Thursday and Friday of the Convention (Glory!)

DIRECTIONS: (We hope to have highly visual signs at these turn off roads)

- 1) Coming from Conway on Hwy 378. Approximately 2 miles from Lake City turn left on Casselman Road (Small country Store). Follow Casselman Road to stop sign. Turn Right. Church 2 miles on the left.
- 2) Coming from Florence on Hwy 52. Take the 378 Bypass East toward Myrtle Beach. When the Bypass joins back up with 378 (4 lanes will become 2 lanes) turn right on first paved road (First Oxtown Road). At Stop sign turn right onto Casselman Road, go 100 yards to stop sign, turn right. Church 2 miles on left.
- 3) Coming from Lake City on 378 East. Turn right on McCutcheon Road (Just past "Marshall's Marine"). When road forks at Methodist Church, take Left fork. Church 1 mile on Right.

(2 Cor 9:1-2) For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you: For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many. (2 Cor 9:7-8) Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:
