JOY and SADNESS

What a month September has been for Free Will Baptists across South Carolina. Joy and Sadness mingled together as Disease brought death into the homes of some of our outstanding Christian Warriors; and God brought a wonderful person to the SCFWB State Office to work as Assistant Director.

NEW ASSISTANT DIRECTOR:

The SCFWB State Office is extremely grateful to be able to welcome Rev Rickey Evans as the New Assistant Director. He began his duties September 15th but ending his Pastoral Duties and finishing some other obligations will mean it will be January 1st before he becomes full time.

In addition to assuming the duties of managing the FWB Christian Book Store and overseeing the Distribution of Sunday School Literature, Brother Rickey will be assisting the Executive Secretary in his work and in his visitation among the churches. He will also be establishing a Pastoral Help Ministry and helping to organize Seminars to assist our Churches and Pastors.

Brother Rickey is a very talented Preacher and an ardent Soul Winner. God blessed him as pastor to be able to bring St John FWB Church from a very low ebb when he arrived into a thriving growing Church with tremendous potential. He will be a blessing to any Church or Conference he visits.

His wife, Lisa, and two children, Lourn (12) and Weston (4) are excited about this change and look forward to visiting in our Churches with Brother Rickey.

You can contact Brother Rickey at 1-800-319-2346, 843-662-8682, or (Home) 843-389-6119.

RACE OVER for THREE:

Three of God's faithful Servants ran their final lap in life's race during September. Although we rejoice in the victory they have accomplished, our hearts are saddened at not being able to see their faces any longer; and our state will sorely miss their efforts for the cause of Christ.

Mrs Gwen Hendrix: Wife of Pastor Earl Hendrix (First FWB Church of Inman) and long time president of the State Woman Active for Christ lost her battle with cancer and went to be with the Lord on September 4, 2002 [More on Page 2]

Rev Mancy Noles: Pioneer Pastor of Walker's Chapel FWB Church, Sumter passed away after a long illness on September 6, 2002 [More on Page 3]

Rev Sigbee Dilda: Former Pastor of Pamplico FWB Church and National General Board Member from South Carolina reported for Heavenly Duty on September 11, 2002. [More on Page 4].

Close friend and co-worker, Patty Newton lead the choir in a song that brought tears to eyes and shouts of victory to the lips of the congregation.

South Carolina lost one of it's leading workers when Mrs Gwen Hendrix was called to Heavenly Duty in September. Mrs. Gwen had served as President of the Beaver Creek District Ladies Auxiliary for 25 years, as Vice President of the S C Ladies Active for Christ for 6 years and as President of the SCWAC for 10 years. In all these capacities she devoted her time and talents to raise thousands of dollars for missionaries and other ministry needs.

Gwen, and husband, Earl, were both saved in the Saxon Avenue FWB Church. In March of 1967, Brother Earl accepted the call to a small mission work in Inman, SC- and the rest is one of the great success stories among Free Will Baptists in South Carolina as this church grew to be one of the leading churches in our state as well as the home of Inman Christian Academy.

An Honor Guard of Pastors, Civic Leaders, Law Enforcement Officers, and State WAC Ladies guided Mrs Gwen's Final journey from Church.

In addition to her work in the Church, the School, and the State WAC; Mrs Gwen was also a member of the Inman Chamber of Commerce (Where she served as president for 6 years) and the Inman Rotary Club. In 1999 she was honored by being listed in Who's Who Among American Woman. She will be greatly missed by her husband and son (Robbie) as well as by multitudes of people in South Carolina.

WAC State Retreat. Friday- Saturday, September 6-7, 2002. Many of the ladies came to this year's State WAC retreat straight from a funeral into what is normally a fun time. Instead, it was turned into a crying, laughing time of celebrating and mourning over the loss of State WAC President, Mrs. Gwen Hendrix. This year's theme- FISH (Fellowship in Service to Him) proved to be just right in honoring the ministry of Mrs. Gwen.

State WAC Vice President, Faye Hanna, shares her memories of Mrs. Gwen.

Vice President, Faye Hanna, began the service by sharing some of her memories of Mrs. Gwen's actions and attitudes. Singing and sharing by numerous Ladies helped them express their memories and deal with their grief. Included in the congregation of nearly 200 were husband, Rev Earl Hendrix, son, Robbie, and many other close friends and this helped make this service even more special.

Rev Earl Hendrix and Family share in the retreat's honor of Mrs Gwen.

This was the first WAC retreat for nearly 1/2 of the people who attended this year; with the oldest attender being 78. In addition to the memorial service, they were treated to "fishy" costumes worn by many of the ladies and door prizes for a lady who had killed a scorpion!, a lady who had swallowed a bug while she sang, and even ladies who wore clothing that glowed in the dark.

This year's special project was "Ride and Slide" and was designated in March as an Honor Gift for Mrs. Gwen Hendrix for her years of faithful service. The money received was to be divided between motorcycles for India (Ride) and playground equipment for the Children's Home (Slide). Total received during the State Offering and the Retreat Offering- $10,000 (Glory!). The 2003 State WAC Project will be to Furnish a room at the Missionary in Residence Home located at Free Will Baptist Bible College in memory of Mrs. Gwen Hendrix.

Special speaker on Saturday was Missionary to Spain, Kristi Johnson. She told about life as a missionary on furlough and then shared about what is needed if we are to enjoy our fellowship with one another and the Lord. She, husband, Tim, son, Alejandro, and due in February daughter are due to return to Spain on Oct 29th.

Brother Mancy Noles looked around his neighborhood in Sumter, SC one day and felt impressed of the Lord to build a Free Will Baptist Church so people could come together to worship God and hear His Word. Unlike many people, he did not just feel something, he did something.

Walker's Chapel FWB Church, Sumter was organized on April 21, 1974 by Rev. Mancy Noles with 12 charter members. Services were held for 2 years in a single wide mobile home put in front of a 4 room house (Whose rooms were used for Sunday School). In 1976 the building the Church now occupies was constructed on 2 lots of land donated by Rev. Noles. Later an addition was built onto the back of the church for Sunday School Rooms and rest rooms. Then, as the Church grew, a fellowship building was built behind the Church and eventually a drive thru covered walk way was added. The Fellowship Building also contained more rest rooms and the baptismal pool. And, praise be to the name of the Lord, all the buildings and land are completely paid for.

Brother Mancy was the Pastor of this church until his death on September 6th. He suffered a stroke in 1999 which affected his speech. More strokes eventually confined him to a wheel chair but he continued to faithfully do all he could in the Church. Different speakers would come in from time to time to help Brother Mancy but he was considered the pastor of the church until his death.

Recently, Rev Bobby Page came to help fill in and assist the Church during Brother Mancy's sickness and he was called as Pastor following Brother Mancy's death. Brother Bobby joined the Eastern Conference during their September Session and is looking for a fruitful ministry as he tries to build on the foundation laid by Brother Mancy Noles.

Temple FWB Church, Darlington is not only a consistent contributor to Missions (Their recent "Roy Player Memorial Missions Drive" contributed $8500 to various Missions) but they also want to get personally involved. Pictured at the left is a group from the Church who recently went to France to visit our works there and to see how they could become more involved in God's Work around the World. The Group includes Rev Todd Parrish, Merinda Parrish, Robert Odom, Jeanette Odom, Jessie Odom, McIver Odom, Julia Chapman, and Elma Floyd.

The South Carolina District WAC Prayer Praise Rally will be held November 16, 2002 at Temple FWB Church in Darlington. Featured speakers will be Ashley Hartley and Ronda Freeman (Recently at the National Woman's Retreat at Ridgecrest). It will begin at 9:00am and end around 2:00pm. Ladies are asked to mark their calendars and make plans to attend this very special event.

BENJAMIN RANDALL DAY is Sunday, November 24, 2002. This special Offering goes to the National Home Missions General Fund and helps the Home Missions Department in their support of Home Missionaries, Chaplains, Church planting, Church Growth and Evangelism, and the Cross-Cultural Ministry. Free materials to promote your Benjamin Randall Day Offering are available from the FWB Home Mission Department- Toll Free: 1-877-767-7674 (P O Box 5002, Antioch, TN 37011)

An SCFWB Church has been the Number One giver for Three years in a Row (Victory FWB Church- Pastor Buck Riffe). Let's keep up the good work.

Rev Sigbee Dilda, former pastor of Pamplico FWB Church, NAFWB General Board member from South Carolina for many years, and long time soldier of the Cross went to be with the Lord on September 11th. Brother Sigbee had recently resigned from Pamplico FWB Church and moved to Hookerton, NC because of ill health. His wife, Mary, had taught for many years at Maranatha Christian School (First FWB Church, Florence) and is now continuing her labors at Mt Calvary Christian School; where she lives close to son, Bryant. Daughter, Susanna, is married to Rev Carroll Bazen, Pastor of Grace FWB Church in Lake City, SC.

Many things stand out about Brother Sigbee. He was a long time Pastor-

- Glenwood FWB Church (Arkansas) 1965-1967
- Pamplico FWB Church (SC) 1967-1970
- Ruth's Chapel FWB Church (NC) 1970-1980
- Great Bridge FWB Church (Virginia) 1980-1983
- Tabernacle FWB Church (NC) 1983-1989
- Lebanon FWB Church (SC) 1989-1990
- Pamplico FWB Church (SC) 1990-2002

He believed what he believed and was willing to stand for that belief (A sentiment echoed by all of the speakers at his funeral service). He knew how to have fun but he also knew when to stand firm.

And he was a faithful soul winner and soldier for the Lord. When I stood in line to greet the family on the night before the funeral the couple ahead of me had come all the way from Great Bridge, Virginia because Brother Sigbee had led them to the Lord. The Couple behind me came up from New Bern, NC to greet the family and tell them that Brother Sigbee had led them to trust Christ as Savior. Over and over that story was repeated that night as I greeted people. What a legacy!

Long time Friend, Rev Guy Owens, bids Farewell before preaching Brother Sigbee's Funeral Message

Victory In Jesus

I watched death lose the battle,
Even though his life was gone.
I watched death lose the battle,
But a victory was won.

A victory in Jesus, not from anything Dad had done.
But a victory for Jesus, for his obedience to God's only Son.

I watched death lose the battle,
I watched the victors come,
from far and near and everywhere,
in the mail and on the phone.
The lives that he affected,
all paid respects to him.
Not for works, but grace and his obedience to God's only Son.

I watched death lose the battle,
I watched God win the war.
Through a life that will go on and on,
'til we go see Dad at home.

Bryant Dilda

History of Free Will Baptists in South Carolina

SC Historical Commission Chairman
NAFWB Historical Commission
Board Member- Rev Joe McKnight

Determining a specific date of organization for the General Conference of Free Will Baptists of South Carolina is impossible at this time. Records indicate that several churches here had formed a Conference that was affiliated with the General Conference of North Carolina as early as 1818. In 1831, Redding Moore requested that the South Carolina churches be allowed to form their own General Conference, and this was approved.

The Minutes of the 1858 Session provide the earliest written record of the General Conference of South Carolina. It is doubtful that any previous records ever existed. This is a logical conclusion, given the motion offered by Elder Samuel McKinsey (McKenzie), and seconded by K. Hicks, that “we have a blank book for to record the proceedings of the General Conference from this time forward.”

However, it must be noted that this was apparently not the first Conference meeting that had taken place. There are two facts that support the existence of an organized body prior to 1858. First, there is the opening statement which reads, “According to previous appointment the ministers, messengers, and delegates of the South Carolina Freewill Baptist General Conference met at Ebenezer Church in Williams Berg District.” This terminology is consistent with Minutes for most of the latter half of the 1800’s, indicating that at the end of each Session, a meeting place for the next Session was selected. Thus, the choice of Ebenezer Church would likely have been the final business item of the 1857 Session. Second, there is evidence that a systematic method of selecting and disciplining ministers was exercised. This is validated by the motion from Elder Samuel McKinsey, and seconded by C. J. Osborn, that “the name of David Lee be discontinued from the List of Ministers.” This was followed by the motion from K. Hicks, and seconded by B. Richberg, that “the name of Nathan Hall be discontinued.”

Perhaps the most significant action taken in the Session may have been the motion by C. J. Osborn, and seconded by J. T. Moor, that “Brother Wright Willson’s name be enrold on the List with our Ministers in these proceedings.” The next article will focus on Wright Willson, one of the unsung heroes of the early Free Will Baptist movement in South Carolina.

The SCFWB Executive Secretary had the great privilege of sharing the work and ministry of Free Will Baptists in South Carolina and around the world in several new places during September.

Sunday, September 8th he spoke about his recent trip to visit our missionaries in Brazil at Friendfield Pentecostal Holiness Church (Pastor Gerald Fitch). The people were very receptive and we value their prayers for God’s work in Brazil.

Sunday, September 22nd he spoke at Bristow Free Will Baptist Church, Blenheim, SC. This non affiliated Church gave me a very warm welcome and I was greatly encouraged about the work they are doing for God in this part of South Carolina. All of the State Ministries and Missionary works were described and the members picked up almost all of the prayer cards and other materials that were made available to them.

Mrs Peggy/ Pastor Lerverne Ard

This church has recently remodeled and is a beautiful facility. It had a wonderful Sunday School Lesson, Very good singing, and a completely full Sanctuary for the 11am service. I look forward to visiting with them again soon.

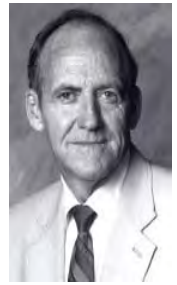

General Board and State Executive Committee will meet, Monday November 4th at the SCFWB Children’s Home in Turbeville. This is the second meeting dealing with making needed changes in the SCFWB State Constitutions.

Field Directors are reminded that they need to have adequate copies of their revised constitution so they can give one to everyone on the General Board. Also remember that every organization must have “South Carolina State Association of Original Free Will Baptists, Inc.” in it’s name every time it is used (or the “Common Name” must be defined in the beginning as referring to that name).

If possible, the revised Constitution needs to come out of this meeting so it can be printed and distributed to Churches by the first part of January.

ANYBODY WATCHING? ANYBODY CARE?

Godly parents and teachers beware! The godless immoral curriculum and influence in schools is gaining momentum across America. It is as if the dam of evil has broken and satanic activists have begun waging war against the Christian family.

This year, 2002, according to Dr. James Dobson of "Focus on the Family" (1-800-232-6459, tape # CT 464/28177), some states have passed laws requiring every school to have at least one staff member to deal with students K-5 and up on the issue of the pro-homosexual concept as a respectable way of life. New York passed the bill 144 to 2.

Satanic activists seem convinced that parents are not watching or they don't care and the children are left naked with no one to defend them. The so-called safe school act (sounds good) promotes tolerance and acceptance of any immoral life style and children from Christian families are targets.

Check this out. Scholastic, Inc., who produces textbooks for public schools and sells books to parents and students through book fairs, etc. are also targeting Christian schools. Be Careful ! ! ! ! ! One of these books is Conversation with God for Teens by Neale Donald Walsch. Public school libraries have 3 volumes of Conversation with God.

The author acts as God and answers questions for teenagers. Some samples from the book: Page 100 - Jenny, 16, asks, "Why am I a lesbian?" God answers, "You are lesbian for the same reason you are right handed or left handed or have brown eyes or any personal characteristic that makes you, you. Human genetics produce all of your characteristics. This is very natural for you and you are perfect the way you are. Go now into the world and celebrate who you are." (Not only is it a lie against nature and humanity, it is also a lie against science.) There is no scientific evidence that anyone is born to be homosexual or lesbian. Oh, pressure is being put on Big Brothers and Boy Scouts to follow the Girl Scouts program, which I'm told 30% of its leaders are lesbian. (Bought any Girl Scout cookies lately?) Another sample - Page 122, Ayla asks, "How can I ever erase the bad I have done from your judgment book?" God answers, "My wonderful, Ayla, there is no judgment book. There is no such thing as right and wrong; only what works or doesn't work for you." Sounds like murder or terrorists are not wrong if it works for you. " Another sample about death from Conversation with God for Teens: page 281 -a teen asks, "Where will I be going -heaven or hell?" God answers, "You will be coming home to me, because there is no such place as hell." (Sounds like the serpent talking to Eve in Genesis). One more sample from pages 297 and 298 about marriage: Susan, 19, asks, "What if I want to just live with him?" God asks, "You mean you want to have sex with him?" Susan says, "But it is a sin against God." God answers, "Really, you think I will be offended if you are loving someone?"

Anybody watching, anybody care??? This book was on the New York Times best-seller list for 132 weeks and sold over 5 million copies. Check it! Your child may have one. If you want to check out the book yourself, call Scholastic, Inc. 1-800-234- 7323. Let's rise up church and proudly proclaim, "One Nation UNDER GOD and going to Stay that way."

Sincerely yours, Rev. Joe Cagle [3686 Bay Road Pamplico, SC 29583 (843) 493-2784]

BRAZIL VISIT

What a JOY to visit with our Missionaries in Brazil and see the mighty work of God going forth. Brazil is bigger than the continental United States! Our Main mission points are 9 hours apart by car so Paula and I had 7 flights in 11 days in order to visit all the works in the time we had- but God blessed and we did not miss a flight or lose any luggage.

The areas where we have Free Will Baptist Works in Brazil are big cities and the missionaries are constantly challenged with normal urban problems- like Crime, Congestion, and Drugs- as well as the spiritual battles connected with building God's Kingdom. Thankfully, we have great Missionaries and they are busy building the spiritual lives of their congregations as well as building buildings. The Churches we have in Brazil are very nice buildings in good locations and every area has a Bible Institute that is busy training up new soldiers for Christ.

Rev John Poole, Son of Missionary Bobby Poole leads the services at the First FWB Church of Ribeirao Preto

As we visited in the Churches and in the homes of our Missionaries we were welcomed with warm hearts; and lots of good Brazilian food! And our hearts were stirred in every service we attended or conducted as we saw the warm worship and sound Bible Preaching being carried on. And over and over we heard marvelous stories of how God was working- From Tom Hughes amazing story of how God marvelously provided a place on the main square for the Second FWB Church of Uberlandia to David Aycock's story of leading many of the men who were working on his home to accept Christ by teaching them Primary Bible Stories using flannel graph each day during their noon meal to Bobby Pooles story of how God had opened the door for a group from his area to go on a recent mission trip to Ireland.

Pray for and support our Team in Brazil. They carry a big burden (Church planting, Seminary Training, Children's Home Ministry, Youth Camp Ministry, etc) and they have a great opportunity to reach the great people of Brazil.

The fine people of St John FWB Church, Patrick appreciated their Pastor , Rev Todd Black, with a gift of $1000 and a meal out - Glory! If you have not had a Pastor Appreciation Sunday yet; it is still not too late: 1Ti 5:17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

The Simpsonville FWB Church Ladies Auxiliary thought the Pastor’s wife needed honor just like the Pastor so they carried Mrs Nancy Jackson (wife of Pastor Chris Jackson) out for a “Surprise, in honor of” supper to show her she was also loved and appreciated for her sacrifice. What a great Idea.

The Eastern Conference quarterly Youth Rally was held at New Prospect FWB Church on Saturday, September 14th. 138 young people and sponsors came to hear Special Speaker Robert Gordon (From Peace FWB Church, Florence), to listen to the New Prospect Youth Choir and “Sister Soldiers for Christ” (from Hickory Hill FWB Church) sing, and to enjoy a great time of fun and fellowship. New Prospect Pastor Phillip Tipton said it was a great service and many hearts were touched for Christ. [The Executive Secretary was unable to attend because of funeral services for Rev. Sigbee Dilda in North Carolina but we do have a few pictures from the March Rally held at Gilead FWB Church that will give you an idea of the success of this ministry.

The 8th Annual Children’s Home Benefit Golf Tournament was another big success. It was held Saturday, September 7th at the Players Course of Wyboo Plantation, Manning with 227 Golfers Participating (Glory). Sponsors and entrance fees raised nearly $25,000 and an auction afterwards raised another $8,000 for a grand total of $33,000- Glory! This will be a big help assisting the ministry of the FWB Children’s Home.

Special thanks to the Golf Tournament committee for their many hours of hard work to make this event possible: Ivan Miles, Earnest Broach, Larry Hawkins, A C Allen, Rev. Mike McAuley, Rev. Donnie Miles, Leverne “Speedy” Bazen, Rev. Jody Wynn, Gerald Johnson, Arris Morgan, Johnny Howle, Mrs Cynthia Crowe, and Rev James Wilhide.

Rev Stevie McCutcheon recently accepted the position of Assistant Pastor at Tabernacle FWB Church (Pastor David Young). Brother Stevie is helping with the work at Tabernacle in order to gain experience and be useful for the Lord as he seeks God’s Direction. He is still available to speak at other churches and is actively seeking God’s leadership for a Pastoral Position.
