WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED

HERE

IN HEAVEN

51 PRECIOUS SOULS were saved on Roll Call Sunday as Free Will Baptists met to celebrate the Resurrection of our Blessed Lord. Many churches enjoyed significant increases in attendance on this special day but the number that mattered the most was the number of souls added to the roll books of Heaven.

Roll Call Sunday is an annual opportunity for us to get a measuring stick of our growth as a denomination and for our churches to push for extra attendance as they invite visitors to the church for this special day.

Amazingly, the number one church in attendance this year was the Mullins-Marion FWB Church only a week after the loss of Pastor Bill Jacobs! What a tribute to the stability and Christian character of this fine Church.

A complete list of the attendance of all reporting churches is included later in this paper, as well as the list of the top ten attended churches and some other helpful information.

THANKS to everyone who worked so hard to make this day a success- and a special thanks to the moderators of the various conferences for the extra work they did to get the results tabulated.

Rev. Bill Jacobs, founder and Pastor of Mullins-Marion FWB Church for 35 years, went to sleep in his chair and woke up in the arms of the Lord on Sunday, April 13th. Brother Bill was a solid soldier in our ranks and will be greatly missed.

Survivors include wife, Arlis and children: Tony, Timothy, Tregiana, and Thad; and a host of grandchildren and church members that were greatly loved by this man of God. (Additional Story and Pictures on Page 3)

Rev James Crowe, left this life for his heavenly reward on Tuesday, March 25th. Brother James was the former pastor of Community FWB Church, Otway FWB Church, Salem FWB Church, Unity FWB Church, and High Hill FWB Church. He was presently attending Hillside FWB Church.

Surviving are his wife, Diane, and children: Traci, Tricia, and Jamie. Brother James preached his final sermon as the main speaker for the Eastern Conference the Saturday before his death. He will certainly be missed.

Rev Johnny Hudson fought his final battle with pain on Monday, March 17th. Brother Johnny was the pastor of Bethel FWB Church for 12 years but sickness deprived him of the opportunity to be an active pastor during the last years of his life; although he had a tremendous testimony among the doctors and nurses who cared for him. Survivors include wife, Mavis, and children: Bryon, Jimmy, and Lynn. Joyfully, Brother Johnny was a member of the SCFWB Minister's Benevolent Fund and the Executive Secretary was able to carry his widow a check for $2000 on the day of his death to help during this critical time.

Brother Bill's children honor his memory at the funeral by singing praises to the Lord.

A People Person who never met a stranger, a friend to preachers, a soul winning church builder, a devoted family man. All of these and more describe the life and ministry of Rev. Bill Jacobs. Thousands of well wishers came to the Church on the Monday night after his death to offer condolences to his wife and family (They began at 6:30pm and it was after 11:30pm before the final person came through the line- with many others leaving without going through because of the length of the line).

Mrs. Arlis and the family say their final earthly farewell.

The day of his funeral found the church, the fellowship building, the choir, and all available spaces crammed with friends and family to take part in the service honoring the life and ministry of "Preacher Bill". This service turned into a celebration of God's goodness and grace as preacher after preacher described the character and Godly conduct of this soldier of the cross.

This church, the community, and our state have all lost a very valuable asset but we know that God always has a plan so we rest confident in God's care and provision in the future.

6 men officiated at the funeral service with many, many other preachers attending to honor brother Bill.

Dr. Roy L. Thomas, former General Director of the Home Missions Department of the National Association of Free Will Baptists, went home to be with the Lord Sunday night, March 23, 2003, at his home in Greeley, Colorado. His battle against pancreatic cancer was bravely fought, and victory was his when he left this life and stepped into a hero's welcome in Heaven - the place he had preached about for fifty years.

Dr. Thomas was born in Greeley, Colorado, and grew up on a farm near Buhl, Idaho. He accepted Christ as his Savior in 1951 at the First Free Will Baptist Church, Buhl, Idaho. He was ordained as a Free Will Baptist minister in 1954, the same year he was married to his wife, Pat. He organized the First Free Will Baptist Church of Artesia, New Mexico that same year.

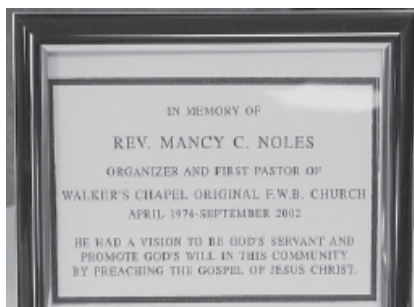

After serving the Artesia congregation for two years, he moved to Nashville, Tennessee to attend Free Will Baptist Bible College. He graduated with honors from that institution in 1960 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. While a student he pastored two different churches in Tennessee---Shady Grove Free Will Baptist Church and First Free Will Baptist Church, Springfield, Tennessee.

Dr. Thomas was sent to Denver, Colorado as a home missionary by the National Home Missions Board in 1961 where he established the First Free Will Baptist Church of that city. The church became self supporting in two years, after which he served for two terms on the National Home Missions Board. He furthered his education by earning a Masters of Divinity Degree from Luther Rice Seminary in 1978, and was granted a Doctor of Divinity Degree from Bethany Seminary in 1989.

In December 1970 he was appointed as Associate Director of the National Home Missions Department, Nashville, Tennessee, and became General Director in 1978. He served in that position until his retirement in December 1995, making a total of 25 years on the National Home Missions staff, and a total of 35 years' affiliation with the Department.

While he served as General Director of the Home Missions Department, there were over 200 churches established throughout the North American continent and the U.S. owned islands of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Under his leadership, the Home Missions Department sponsored thousands of Evangelism and Church Growth Conferences, and the Old Time Camp Meeting at the National Convention. He also started the Church Extension Loan Fund, the Helping Hands Church Building Team, the Associate Missionary Program, the Aquila and Priscilla Program, the Tentmaker Program, and developed many Evangelism and Church Growth publications. He also authored the books, Planting and Growing a Fundamental Church and published The Journal of Benjamin Randall, and many other historical Free Will Baptist and church growth books and materials.

Dr. Thomas is the father of two children---a son, Mark, a former home missionary who pastors Highland Hills Free Will Baptist Church, Greeley, Colorado and a daughter, Patsy who is the wife of Howard Gwartney, former home missionary who pastors East Valley Free Will Baptist Church, Mesa, Arizona.

April 13th was not only Home Coming at Walker's Chapel FWB Church, Sumter; it is also the day that the congregation honored the memory of Rev. Mancy Noles for his work of founding and pastoring this church by placing a plaque on the sanctuary in his memory.

A good day of fellowship, food, singing, and preaching all showed that brother Mancy's work continues to go forward even after his promotion to Glory.

South Carolina W AC Convention
March 15, 2003
Valley Falls FWB Church Spartanburg, SC
 (Written by Mrs. Faye Hanna)

in which South Carolina Women Active for Christ can proclaim His name in our homes, places of work, Sunday School and CTS classes, Churches, in Home missions, and in Foreign Missions around the world. What a blessing we had at Valley Falls FWB Church in Spartanburg at the 2003 WAC Convention. Ladies started gathering as early as 8:00 a.m. to prepare for registration, attend committee meetings, and to peruse the packet of information prepared by Teresa Smith. The beautiful auditorium with banners proclaiming the theme "Bound Together in Service" provided an immediate welcome.

As Carolyn Riddick began the piano prelude, the spirit of God could be felt in the hearts of women from all parts of our beautiful state. Mona Dukes got us moving with some choruses (and her usual shenanigans!). Faye Hanna called the convention to order and from that point on there was no stopping the WAC ! The only glitch of the day was a broken tape which prevented Leilani Reid from rendering a special song, but the children from our Children's Home stepped up and blessed our hearts with a song. By the way, Leilani is planning to share her song with us at the Retreat (set for September 5th and 6th at Lookup Lodge).

Mary Reid gave the treasurer's report and presented the missions' plaques to Immanuel FWB Church (Home Missions) and First FWB-Darlington (Foreign Missions).

Our hearts were blessed by the speaker at our morning worship service. Mirial Gainer, Missionary to Japan, shared from heart her love for the people of Japan and her desire to share Christ with them. We were challenged to lift up the broken-hearted wherever God's path leads us.

In addition to the regular mission giving, the 2003 special project for the SCWAC is to raise $8000.00 for the Missionary in Residence House on the grounds of Free Will Baptist Bible College. Marjorie Workman, Executive Secretary of WNAC, shared information concerning this endeavor. Faye Hanna presented a garden marker to Mrs. Workman as a "stepping stone" to our project. An offering of $2,155 was received (we heard a GLORY when that figure was announced!) and the auxiliaries will continue work on this project and bring their offerings to the September Retreat. The furnishings will be given in memory of Gwen Hendrix who for many years led the women of the State of South Carolina in sacrificial giving for missions.

Our meeting would not be complete without reports from various departments. Mike Jones, Rickey Evans and Shiloh Hackett gave reports from the Promotional Office, Book Store and Children's Home. The remainder of the business session progressed smoothly, which is the trademark of our South Carolina WAC! Without violating too many of Robert's Rules of Order, the women voted to give 20 chairs to the Aiken Home Mission and to give $1000 .00 to Mirial's account.

The last item of the day was election of officers for 2003-2004.

The Valley Falls women outdid themselves with the luncheon. The gym was beautifully decorated, and we were served a delicious meal as if we were in a nice restaurant.

Thanks to all who made this day so special.

What do you get when 210 women (well, maybe a few men scattered around) gather in mid-March? A lot of excitement as a year of auxiliary work is reviewed mixed with a lot of anticipation as another year lies ahead

A man's point of view about the State WAC Meeting as reported by Rev. Van Powell.

The weather outside was frightful. Rain and cold air greeted the delegates as they arrived at the State meeting of the WAC of South Carolina. Yet as one entered the sanctuary of the Valley Falls Free Will Baptist Church, there was a totally different atmosphere. There was a tremendous amount of warmth that was found as the ladies greeted each other, some as if had been a " long time of no see." The church was a buzz with excitement, ladies chatting, hugs a plenty, and smiles bursting forth on faces.

The excitement seemed to intensify as they became aware of the theme of the meeting, "BOUND TOGETHER IN SERVICE." Truly one could say that this was a perfect motto as these ladies truly were bound together by the love of Christ in service for Him.

As the meeting was called to order, you could sense the presence of the Holy Spirit as He settled the folk down and continued to guide them in their meeting. Any time the Lord blesses, Satan wants to defeat. Several time things seem not to go right, yet God always has plan and His plan worked mightly this day. The meeting was carried out with love and harmony and in the end, God got the glory.

After the wonderful, spiritual, working meeting, the host church served a lunch fit for a king, ah, queen !! As always, it is a pleasure to visit with the ladies of the South Carolina WAC and observe as they work, fellowship, and do what is needed to accomplish the task that the Lord has given them. Yes, they are BOUND TOGETHER IN SERVICE in South Carolina WAC.

Beaver Creek Bible Institute Graduation.

Friday, March 21st was a very special night for 7 students of the Beaver Creek Bible Institute. Four years of intense study was about to culminate in graduation.

Pastor Jimmy Sanders welcomed the Family, Friends, and well wisher to these special services at First FWB Church of Chester. Special music led to Beaver Creek Bible Institute Director, Rev David Carter, introducing Rev. Jimmy Sanders as the special Speaker. Brother Jimmy preached a powerful message from John 2:1-10 about "Whatsoever He saith unto you, do". In addition to the 7 Bachelor of Theology degrees given to the 4 year graduates, 63 other diplomas were given out for 1,2, or 3 years programs of study.

Several items of note was the recognition of one individual who did not graduate from High School but was now graduating from a Bible Institute and another who had graduated with a 4 year degree 2 years before but decided to continue study and had accumulated 6 years of perfect attendance.

The Beaver creek Bible Institute begins another session the Last Monday in September with branches in Spartanburg (Rev David Carter, Director), Chester (Rev Jimmy Sanders, Director) and Lancaster (Rev Timmy Larrimore, Director)

AWARDS BANQUET PEE DEE BIBLE INSTITUTE

March 27th was a special time for the students of Pee Dee Bible Institute as they completed another semester of studies. The courses covered were Old Testament Survey and Understanding People.

The Institute is in its eleventh year of service to the churches in the Pee Dee Region of South Carolina. The Fall Semester will begin September 8th with studies in New Testament Survey and Soul Winning. The School is located at Southside

FWB Church in Darlington. Contact Pastor Leroy Lowery for information at (843) 395-2054.

Rev. Jim Puckett and Rev Ron Moore recall the impact Brother Elro had on their ministries.

Brother Elro and Mrs. Nancy enjoy the new Rocking Chairs given by the Church

The Certificate said he was a member of Salem FWB Church and he was now an ordained Free Will Baptist Minister. It was signed by Rev. M. L. Mellette, Rev. Sheldon Bullard, and Rev. Irwin Hyman. It was dated March 29, 1953. The Name on the Certificate was Rev. Elro Driggers.

50 years to the day after his ordination, the congregation of Beulah FWB Church conspired together to hold a special celebration in honor of Pastor Elro's Fifty years of faithful service to the Lord. His family helped keep him occupied so that everyone could gather and surprise him on this Saturday afternoon.

The fellowship building had been beautifully decorated with banners listing all of the churches Brother Elro had served and bulletin boards were filled with pictures of churches and memories. One of the great treats was the surprise visit by Rev Jim Puckett (State Missions Director from Oklahoma) and his brother Ron. Brother Jim was the first of many preachers called to the ministry under Brother Elro's Preaching.

This board showed pictures of all churches Brother Elro Pastored- First FWB-Pine Bluff, AR, Fellowship FWB- Flat River, MO, Wisconnette FWB- Jacksonville, FL, First FWB- Miami, FL, Woodbine FWB- Nashville, TN, Bethany FWB- Timmonsville, SC, High Hill FWB- Lake City, SC, Beulah, Pamplico, SC.

Liberty FWB Church, Orangeburg celebrated its 16th anniversary on Sunday, April 6th with 68 in attendance. Former pastor, Rev. Jerry White brought the Home Coming Message. Then the church enjoyed the favorite activities of Free Will Baptists- Eating and singing! Pastor Roger Tripp is excited about the work God is doing and is looking forward to soon being able to place a new steeple on the Church.

Andrew Gleason was licensed by the Eastern Conference at their last meeting and is available to speak- You can contact him at (843) 221-7649

The Congregation of Lighthouse FWB Church, Florence, gave Pastor Brian Tolliver a surprise birthday on March 16th following the evening service. He received generous gifts of money, a gift certificate, and shaving cream and soap (is that a grooming hint?!).

This Sunday also kicked off Charter Membership month with 25 charter members joining by April 6th. The Church also held its first baptismal service on April 6th with 4 young people following the Lord in Baptism- Brooke Tolliver, Adam Tolliver, Tyler Knox, and Brooke Haywood.

Enoree FWB Church dedicated their new Fellowship Building on Sunday, March 23rd as part of their annual Home Coming Service. Standing in the doorway preparing to cut the ribbon are Mrs Sally Vaughn (the oldest member of the Church) and Mr W. D. Seay (oldest charter member of the Church). Also pictured is Rev Earl Hendrix (First FWB Church, Inman) who preached the Home Coming Message.

Rev. Billy Vanderford is Interim Pastor of this fine church.

Open letter to South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptists from the First FWB Church of Una, SC.

Dear Fellow Churches,

I just wanted to thank you for your generous gift in response to our crisis. It is heartwarming and encouraging for you to willingly and cheerfully act in our behalf during such a difficult time as this. Your response has been both beneficial emotionally and spiritually as well as financially. It was as I said at the State meeting, "a refreshing and uplifting experience, a shot in the arm to our people to encourage them that we are not going through this thing alone".

NOTE: Your gifts and some cooperation from the bank has allowed the Church to pave their parking and prepare their sound system. There are still many obstacles to be overcome but it appears the congregation will finally be able to move into the new building sometime in May. Your continued prayers and support are appreciated.

When I brought the news back to our people they were thrilled and the excitement of entering our new facility was renewed. It is also the light at the end of the tunnel that our people needed to see to strengthen them, as well as me, in continuing on during this unwelcomed, but, in God's plan, necessary experience. My prayer is that we get the lesson God is teaching through this incident. Thank you again for your supportive prayerful attitude and financial investment in the kingdom of God and our church. Pastor Kenneth Cash

Parkway FWB Church, Spartanburg celebrated their Home Coming on Sunday, March 16th with a special day of singing, preaching, and fellowship. A great group of singers from the Church opened the services and got everyone in a spirit of worship before Pastor Mitch Edge turned the service over to the SCFWB Executive Secretary for the Morning Message. Naturally, a great fellowship meal followed in the Family Life Center. It was a wonderful day of celebrating God's goodness to this church that is impacting their community for the Lord.

Dorm Parents Needed. The SCFWB Children's Home in Turbeville is in need of several good dorm parents. They need some daily duty dorm parents and also some who will help as relief dorm parents so that the normal Dorm Parents can get a few days off from time to time. If you would like to find out the qualifications then contact Director, James Wilhide at (843) 659-2880.

The 9th Annual Gold City Concert to Benefit the SCFWB Children's Home will be held at Patriot's Hall in Sumter, SC on Saturday, June 7th. Contact the Home for more information and for tickets. Enjoy a good night of Gospel Music while you support the ministry of the Children's Home

STATE YOUTH RETREAT.

This year's State Youth Retreat was another grand success as 87 youth and 34 adults from all over the State came together to celebrate the Lord. The First FWB Church of Myrtle Beach (Pastor Jimmy Brown) served as host for the preaching sessions with Rev Brian Williams (Pastor of Highland Drive FWB Church in Lincolnton, NC) serving as Retreat Evangelist. He preached 5 powerful youth oriented messages that touched the hearts of those present with 21 at the altar on Saturday night pledging to remain pure and one coming forward for salvation on Sunday Morning.

Many expressed great excitement with the wonderful spirit, the good times of Christian fellowship, and the opportunity to meet other Christian young people from across our state.

REMINDER: SC YOUTH CAMP WILL BE JULY 28-AUGUST 1, 2003. THIS WILL BE COMBINED JUNIOR AND TEEN CAMP FOR AGES 8 AND UP.

Pastor Carroll Bazen and the Congregation of Grace FWB Church, Lake City, held a special service on Wednesday, April 16th to present a gift to Home Missionary, Todd Smith.

Pastor Carroll heard about the need the Aiken Mission had for 100 new chairs so he challenged his congregation to adopt 50 chairs as a special project. The need touched a heart string with the wonderful people of Grace FWB Church and they quickly raised all of the money needed for the 50 chairs. In fact, the money came in so quickly until Pastor Carroll then challenged his flock to raise the money for 50 new song books as well as for the chairs.

When the final offering was received on this Wednesday night Pastor Carroll was able to present Missionary Todd Smith a check for over $2500! (Is there a "Glory!" anywhere in the house?)

About Our Missionaries

>>Missionary to India, Carlisle Hanna, returned to the States on April 26th for the summer. He returned early because of the serious motorcycle accident involving his daughter and son-in-law, Brenda Kay and Michael. Pray for God's guidance for the thriving work that continues in India.

>>Missionaries to Brazil, Andy and Andrea Moore, returned to the States for the month of April in order to get some necessary items done about new son, Levi. They are due to return to Brazil the first week in May. Pray for these new parents and for God's direction about future plans and projects for the Brazilian ministry.

>>Missionary to Japan, Mirial Gainer, continues her state side assignment awaiting sufficient funds to enable her to return to Japan. Contact the SCFWB State Office [(843) 662-5010] to set up a service.

>>Missionaries to Brazil, David and Annette Aycock, are due to return to the State for several months beginning in August of this year. Pray for them as they make these preparations.

>>Missionaries to Brazil, Bobby and Geneva Poole are facing a deficient account. Pray for God's provision and for guidance as they begin another year of Seminary Ministry.

>> Missionaries to Spain, Tim and Kristi Johnson, are rejoicing in a permit for the church building. Pray for God's continued provision and guidance in this project.
