SC FWB State Meeting

The South Carolina Free Will Baptist State Association met for its Sixty-Ninth annual session at Gilead Free Will Baptist Church in Scranton on February 24-25, 2011, and was hosted by the Eastern Conference. The General Board met on Wednesday, February 23, 2011, at Gilead Church and heard all reports in preparation for the state meeting. The theme for this year's meeting was "The Importance of a Watchman" (Isaiah 21:6). The Thursday morning session opened with the congregational hymn led by Reverend Mark Leonard. The meeting was opened in prayer by Reverend Timmy Larrimore, and the response was given by Assistant Moderator Reverend Danny Stone. The meeting was called to order by State Clerk Mike Jones, and Moderator Sherwood Lee shared a devotion about the need of "God's Wisdom."

Due to the National Association of Free Will Baptist increasing the annual fee per church, our State Association voted to increase the annual state dues per church from $175 to $235 per year. This is an increase of about $5 per month per church. The State Association voted to start the "Norwood Gibson Minister Help Fund" to help South Carolina Free Will Baptist ministers in times of hardship or crisis.

The South Carolina Free Will Baptist Home for Children Board requested the endorsement of the South Carolina Free Will Baptist State Association for the Children's Home to be fully licensed by the SC Department of Social Services. The State Association voted to accept this endorsement with the understanding that if the licensure in any way alters, compromises, or conflicts with the mandate, mission, and message of God's Word as charted by the South Carolina Free Will Baptist State Association, that it will forfeit and voluntarily seek closure to the relationship with the Department of Social Services.

The Thursday morning message was brought by Reverend Chris Jackson, pastor of First Free Will Baptist Church in

Living Water Sunday at Lebanon

In recent years Lebanon Free Will Baptist Church of Effingham has suffered with poor water pressure and frequent water failures due to the usage of an old house well. This well furnished the church parsonage and a congregation (that has tripled in the past 4 years). When the church had to move into the Family Life Center in order to accommodate the increased attendance, they found that building codes now required a sprinkler system for the planned new Family Life Center.

Having contacted the Clerk of County Council Mrs. Connie Haselden, daughter of Reverend Murrel Young, it was determined that Lebanon is located at the juncture of three districts in Florence County. It was also revealed that Florence County had turned control of its water supply over to the City of Florence. With Mrs. Connie's help and the blessings of the Lord, all of the forms were completed and approved, and the water line was extended down Friendfield Road to the front of Lebanon FWB Church.

In celebration of this great blessing a Living Water Celebration was held at Lebanon Free Will Baptist Church on Sunday, March 27, 2011. Special guests were Florence Mayor, Stephen Wukela; District Four representative, Mitchell Kirby; and former District Two representative and now Lieutenant Governor, Ken Ard (all pictured below). Each special guest was recognized and received a Bible engraved with his name. The church had special prayer for the guest, and a special testimony was shared by Lieutenant Governor Ken Ard. Following a message on "Obtaining Living Water" by Pastor Mac Atkinson, Jr, everyone was given an engraved water bottle and enjoyed a time of food and fellowship.

Gilead Pastor Appreciation Service

A surprise Pastor Appreciation Service was held at Gilead Free Will Baptist Church in Scranton on Sunday night, January 30, 2011. Sadly, around 3:45 PM on Sunday afternoon, Reverend Larry McAlister's wife's mother passed away. A tremendous amount of prepared food and other factors made it necessary to go on with the "Appreciation Surprise" with only Associate Pastor Mike Bishop and his wife Jennifer represented. Preacher Larry and Mrs. Retha McAlister were able to return to the church by 6:30 PM, and were able to hear many of the wonderful testimonies about the impact Pastor Larry and Retha and Associate Pastor Mike and Jennifer had on the lives of the church family. The testimony time was followed with a message by Reverend Mike Jones, and then a fellowship supper was enjoyed by all. A basket full of cards and gifts were delivered to the pastors as an expression of thanks for the wonderful job they were doing at Gilead.

The Moore Update - Brazil and Beyond Ministries

Our annual Family Retreat held in Barbacena, Brazil on March 5-9, 2011, was a great success. Over 200 Brazilians attended this exciting event. The preaching by pioneer missionary Bobby Aycock stirred many hearts. The altars were full and our churches were greatly challenged for the work of God. Thank you for your prayers for this event.

Our work here in Juiz de Fora continues to do well. Our attendance is growing and we are conducting several Bible studies during the week. Please do pray for the conversion of a young man named Tiago (James) who has recently started attending.

We would like to thank our good friends in South Carolina for your faithful support of our ministry. We are particularly grateful for the numerous Ladies Auxiliaries that have worked hard to raise much needed funds for our mission account. Without your prayers and support this ministry would not be able to go on. We praise God for your involvement and commitment to this ministry. Together, South Carolinians are impacting Brazil for the cause of Christ.

Serving in Brazil,

Andy, Andrea, Levi, and Lily Moore

Fernando Bustamante - SC Home Missions

I want to thank you all for your support and prayers, because I know that in these days that I have been sick, you all have prayed for me. Now the Hispanic ministry in South Carolina has been through some tough moments, as you know the economy has not been any better; therefore, the Hispanics have been suffering. Also, since the economy has not been so good for the people in our churches, many of them are constantly moving. Below are some praise and prayer requests:

- The church in Florence this past year had 50 saved and 15 people baptized.
- The church in Columbia had 60 saved and 25 baptized this past year.
- The church in Conway had 43 saved and 17 baptized this past year.

We are looking for a place to change the meeting place of the Conway church. Please pray for us regarding this. In the month of January, we started a FWB church in Morelos, Mexico. Thank you for your continued prayers and support!

The Morgan Road - Neil and Mandi Morgan

Greetings to our brothers and sisters of the Free Will Baptist Churches in South Carolina. We thank God for each of you and your commitment to the spread of the Gospel both at home and around the world.

Over the last six months, we have been busy about the work of learning the Spanish language. When we arrived in Costa Rica this past August, we were only able to say a few words. Now, we are able to speak in simple sentences about a variety of topics. We hope to soon be able to connect those sentences in flowing conversations about the Good News of Jesus Christ to those we meet, both here in Costa Rica and in Uruguay.

These past months have taught us much about the faithfulness of God and the faithfulness of many of you to remember to remember us in prayer and support. Over the past six months, we have battled many illnesses. This we believe in large part is a combination of our bodies adjusting to a new climate and new allergens, in addition to the desire of the enemy for us to fail. As always though, God has faithfully provided the strength, health, and energy we have needed, along with some dear friends to lend helping hands.

We know the Bible teaches that the prayers of a righteous man availeth much. Therefore, we ask each of you to continue to pray for the following:

- Pray for the lost in Uruguay.
- Pray for direction for the missionaries currently in Uruguay and us as we prepare to go.
- Pray for our health.
- And pray for Free Will Baptist International Missions.

Though these are tough times, these are exciting times. For we look forward to how our great God will provide for His Gospel to be spread to the ends of the earth. Thank you again for being such a faithful part of His command to "GO."

For His Glory, Neil and Mandi Morgan

Bobby and Geneva Poole - Brazil

Dear Family, Pastors, Friends and co-laborers,

These have been some of the busiest days of our lives! We have seen the hand of the Lord working each moment of each day. We tell our people, the building we are building is not the “church,” it is the place where the church meets. So we have been busy building a building and building a “church”. We have not had earthquakes or a civil war, but the devil has been very active. One couple, separated, are now back together and trying to get their lives back together. Two men, drunkards, that we have been dealing with for over 10 years, have gone from bad to worse! Pray for us. Another couple talked to me about getting married. There are two precious little girls involved, the oldest fathered by a different man. They have been attending for about three months now, but with their schedule, it has been hard to get a time to sit down and talk with them.

The building is almost finished. All the tile work is done, the painting almost finished but the ceiling lacks a couple or three more days of work. The electrician will be ready to install the light fixtures as soon as the painting and ceiling work are finished. We have put buying benches on the back burner, along with the air conditioning units. We will have to use the old benches and install a few fans, until we can do better. God is building His Church!

On the financial side, we are having a serious problem with the devaluation of the dollar. A gallon of gas is now about $6.00. The Apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Church, “ But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly: and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.” Are there needs that need to be met in the International Missions Department? Yes, there are! But as great as the needs may be, we feel that God wants us to give in love for Him and the work He has given our Free Will Baptist. Praise the Lord we serve a living Savior, One who is coming again to take us all up to live with Him for eternity!

Because of Calvary and the empty tomb,
Bobby and Geneva

In advance, thank you for your support, and most of all, thank you for your prayers! May the Lord bless you!

Mirial Gainer - Japan

Thank you so much for your continued prayer and financial support. As you know, 2010 was a very hard year for my mother and myself, but also for all of the Japan team. Our faith has been sorely tried. Satan has attacked us continually, but God has been faithful. Several people became Christians in 2010. The Miharashidai Church Plant has made a giant step toward full church status. It now has a Japanese pastor, Brother Sasaki. We are praising the Lord about this. I return to the Mayo Clinic March 19th. The doctors will continue tests on my heart at that time. I will also have speech therapy from my throat surgery when I go back to the Mayo Clinic. Thank you for all you so for us. Thank you for partnering with me in the work in Japan. May God richly bless your every effort for Him. Mirial

Forlines Resigns as General Director of FWB IM

Antioch, TN— James Forlines tendered his resignation as general director of Free Will Baptist International Missions on February 10, 2011, in agreement with the board, according to Chairman Danny Williams. “After carefully considering the challenging circumstances we are facing, the board believes a change in leadership is necessary,” asserted Williams.

Forlines has a long and fruitful relationship with International Missions, as a leading supporting pastor, board member, and as general director since 1999. During his tenure, the Mission experienced rapid growth, structural reorganization, and financial development. Under Forlines’ oversight the Mission has seen extraordinary overseas growth in conversions, baptisms, and churches planted. An emphasis on partnering with national leadership around the world has been a hallmark of Forlines’ tenure.

Forlines has led the Mission to refocus its efforts from single-church plants to facilitating church planting movements. The Hanna Project, a non-governmental organization which conducts humanitarian projects bringing help, hope, and healing to at risk areas, was founded in 2004, and has proven extremely successful.

Williams expressed the board’s gratitude to Forlines and respect for his passion, integrity, and tireless efforts. “He accomplished some things no one else could have done,” stated Paul Creech (GA). “As long as Christian missions exists on earth,” Robert Morgan (TN) declared, “his contributions will be remembered.” Randy Wilson (OK) affirmed, “We have nothing but the highest admiration and respect for James’ passion and vision for world missions.” His wife, Anita, has made countless sacrifices in support of James and the Mission, and the board extends special honor to her.

Forlines said of his time at International Missions, “I am grateful the Lord chose to use me for these years. I will greatly miss my colleagues and friends both in North America and around the world. To Him be the glory for the things that have been accomplished.”

Chairman Williams confirms that veteran missionary and current Hanna Project Director Clint Morgan has agreed to serve as interim general director. The board is confident that Morgan will provide effective leadership during the transitional period. Forlines will assist with the transition. The executive leadership of the Mission will now be comprised of Morgan as interim general director, Jeff Turnbough as deputy director of field operations, and Rob Conley as director of financial operations.

Board members attending this special session were Danny Williams (AL, chairman), Randy Wilson (OK, vice-chairman), Tom McCullough (MI, secretary), Paul Creech (GA), Nelson Henderson (AR), Jeff Manning (NC), Greg McAllister (CA), and Dr. Robert Morgan (TN). Tom McCullough was unable to attend in person, but participated in the full session via SKYPE (Internet video conference call).

FWBBC ‘Holds the Line’ on Tuition Costs

NASHVILLE, TN—In a bold move geared to help parents and students struggling with the economic downturn afford a college education, Free Will Baptist Bible College announced a tuition freeze for the 2011-2012 academic year, according to President Matt Pinson. The college’s decision to “Hold the Line” on tuition and all other basic costs (room and board, miscellaneous fees, and more) keeps the sticker price within range of families balancing the realities of financial stress in the worst economic crunch since the Great Depression.

“Our current and prospective students and their parents are taking a hard look at the financial bottom line,” President Pinson said. “While we can’t change the recessed economy our Free Will Baptist families face, we wanted to take a positive and bold step to make a difference where it mattered most—tuition and other expenses. And we did! This is an important move for all of us. The Board of Trustees and the college administration are making every effort to keep the cost of an FWBBC education as affordable as possible.”

This marks the first time in almost 50 years that no increase in tuition or other expenses has occurred at FWBBC. With families becoming more rigorously selective in choosing a college for their children, freezing tuition costs for a year will spotlight the student-friendly atmosphere of FWBBC.

David Williford, FWBBC’s vice president for institutional advancement, said, “Thank God for the faithful support of our donors whose financial commitment to the mission of FWBBC makes this decision to flat-line tuition for 12 months a possibility. It needed to be done, and I’m so glad the Trustees made the decision, but it would not have happened without the generous gifts of our donors.” The college’s enrollment services staff will be pushing the word out nationwide this spring and summer to prospective Free Will Baptist students and parents regarding FWBBC’s cost freeze on tuition.

Rusty Campbell, director of enrollment services, said, “We plan a news blitz as soon as possible with post cards, emails, letters, phone calls, website updates, chapel announcements, and more. This is a unique moment, and we want to spread the good news as far and as fast as we can. The ‘Hold the Line’ decision on tuition costs may well be the deciding factor for a number of prospective students and their parents.”

FWBBC began charging tuition for the first time in 1948. While the college operated from 1942 until 1948 without tuition fees, economic conditions in post-World War II America plus rising costs to maintain an expanding curriculum and a professional faculty placed FWBBC on the same page with other U.S. colleges as a tuition-driven institution.

FWB Children's Home by Reverend Todd Parrish

Words cannot express our gratitude for the faithful support of our kids. We also want to thank God for 61 years of blessings serving hurting children. We are currently serving 22 children, not including the five staff children. We are DEBT-FREE! Praise the Lord! We ended 2010 under budget and in the BLACK!

Our children are active in school sports and church youth activities. A sewing class is being taught on Friday afternoons. One of our boys serves on the school council. Schoolwork and grades are improving, and the task of getting the new children on grade level continues to improve. We are scheduling services for 2011. Please call us at 843-659-2880 if you would like for us to come and share in a part of your worship services.

As of October 11, 2010, all three dormitories are now OPEN and serving children. Howard and Kellie McNeal (Lake Butler, Florida) have agreed to join our staff as new dorm parents in the Little Boys Dorm. This is an answer to much prayer, and we praise God for His provision.

The annual Fox Hunt Benefit held on March 5, 2011, was a HUGE success, raising $29,000.00 for our Children's Home. Please come and visit us! Thank you for what you have done and are doing for our children.

Student Missions Coordinator

Antioch, TN—Neil Gilliland, member care consultant for Free Will Baptist International Missions, announced recently that Courtney Edwards will replace Joni H. as student missions coordinator. "I have been involved with E-TEAM from its inception," stated Neil Gilliland, Ph.D. "It has a rich heritage of outstanding leaders. Like those who have served before her, Courtney brings not only the skill set needed, but also a deep passion for world missions. We welcome her to the International Missions family."

Miss Edwards, a 2010 graduate of Free Will Baptist Bible College in Nashville, Tennessee, holds an associates degree in business. Courtney brings multi-faceted perspectives and understanding to E-TEAM, having served as both an E-TEAM student and as Joni's assistant last year. "Courtney did an amazing job assisting with E-TEAM," Joni enthused. "Her awesome love for students and missions is joined with great enthusiasm to get people involved. I am super excited to see what God is going to accomplish through her in this ministry."

While a student at FWBBC, Courtney worked in the call center helping recruit students as a member of the enrollment management team. She also assisted in planning various campus activities like Welcome Days. Hailing from the Horse Branch Free Will Baptist Church in Turbeville, South Carolina, Courtney's first experience with E-TEAM was in 2006 as a member of the Panama team.

Joni served as student missions coordinator for five years, helping define and develop this vital ministry. Although recruiting, vetting, and training students for E-TEAM comprises a large part of the student missions role, the coordinator also handles a myriad of logistical details, enlists team leaders, and engages missionary participation. Additionally, though not as time intensive, the coordinator recruits, trains, and deploys college students for individual and team ministry overseas.

Joni and her husband Heath are now employed by The Hanna Project and plan to serve as field workers in Spain. They hope to depart in January 2012. "Joni has kindly continued to fulfill some of the responsibilities of this role while focusing on preparing to go to Spain," acknowledged Gilliland, "however, the work load increases significantly this time of year. Hiring a new coordinator was absolutely necessary to continuing the excellence of the student missions programs." Courtney begins her new responsibilities on May 2, 2011.

Randall House's New Heritage Series

In October of 2010 Reverend Dale Burden approached Randall House with an idea. Executive Director Ron Hunter presented the board with a detailed plan of expanding that original idea and was met with unanimous approval. After much collaboration, Reverend Dale Burden and Ron Hunter excitedly announced the new series to be released this fall entitled the Heritage Bible Series. Reaching back into the archives, Reverend Burden is significantly reworking his original writings to include the relevant application needed for a biblical worldview and working in the D6 family themes so the Heritage Bible Series for adults will fit in the D6 Curriculum Series. Reverend Dale Burden served on the Randall House board of directors from 1960 through 1986, and during that time he wrote for the Randall House curriculum for 15 years.

This new product will release in the fall of 2011 with the first lesson starting in September. If you are using any non-Free Will Baptist curriculum, this is a great time to return to a solid Free Will product and put all ages of your family into a Randall House product to insure the future beliefs of our children and grandchildren. The Heritage Bible Series will feature a printed student book and a digital teacher's guide on a CD, which allows teachers to customize and print weekly teacher's notes. Pastor Earl Hendrix said, "The new Heritage Bible Series is Biblical, fundamental, evangelistic, and doctrinally sound. I highly recommend it to be used by every Free Will Baptist adult Sunday School."

Correction: In the Oct/Nov/Dec 2010 issue of the Informer on page 7, the article entitled "Peace Church," it should have stated that Reverend Danny Keen started the church instead of Reverend Danny King.
