Resolutions Committee Report – 2009

Be it resolved:

1. That we recognize the moral decline our nation is in and we challenge our pastors to stand strong against abortion, homosexuality, and same-sex marriage which is condemned in the Bible (Lev. 20:13, Rom 1:26-27, Gen 9:6, Lev. 24:17). That we also pray for our nation and are willing to reach and minister to those who are entrapped by these sins.
2. That in keeping with our theme this year, we all strive “to know Him” personally and “to make Him known” to the world around us (Phil. 3:10).
3. That we give Fairview FWB Church and the Beaver Creek Conference a rising vote of thanks for the wonderful job they have done in making the 2009 South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptist a success.

SC FWB State Office and Christian Bookstore Report

The well known reformer Martin Luther said, “I have tried to keep things in my hands and lost them all, but what I have given into God's hands I still possess.” Many of you have experienced this great truth that Martin Luther had learned in his own life. Individuals and churches have given sacrificially so that missionaries can stay on the field, so that our State Office can operate, so that our Children’s Home can minister to children, and so that other ministries can continue in the Lord’s work. On behalf of our State Office, missionaries, and ministries around the world, thank you for your sacrifice and faithful support.

Gifts that come through the State Office for ministries around the world come from individuals, businesses, ladies auxiliary groups, and churches. The giving that came in through the state office in 2008 was down compared to 2007; however, considering the down economy and the limitation of some previous large individual donor gifts, this is commendable for our churches, and we thank you for your giving!

We are here to serve you in any way that we can. It is an honor to be a part of this ministry!

In Christ, Rev. Todd Smith, Executive Secretary

To: Moderator Sherwood Lee and the Executive Committee of the South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptists, Inc.

Subject: Audit of the financial records of the South Carolina Free Will Baptist State Office and Christian Book Store.

A careful review of the financial records of the South Carolina FWB State Office and Christian Book Store found the following:

- All State Office and Book Store bank accounts were in balance and were reconciled with bank statements monthly.
- Paper and electronic copies of receipts were available for all accounts and random receipt and deposit checks on all accounts met with no discrepancies.
- Monthly reports are given to the State Executive Committee on all State Office Operations accounts and these reports reconciled with actual computer records.
- State Office Operation accounts and State Book Store accounts are both monitored by State Executive Secretary, Todd Smith and Book Store Manager, Linda Tanner thus maintaining multiple over sight over these accounts.
- The Designated Funds Gifts Accounts for the support of missionaries and ministries are reconciled each month through a double system of Bank Account reconciliation and Zero Balance accounting (All gifts into this fund must be distributed each month so as to achieve a "Zero" balance).
- Designated Funds Gifts are published in the State Paper (The Informer) each year to enable each donor to compare the amount listed as being given from them to the amount actually given by them. Any inquiry concerning gifts discrepancies is investigated until a clear and satisfactory explanation is understood by both parties.
- Because of the sickness of Book Store Manager, Linda Tanner, during 2008 former State Executive Secretary, Mike Jones, has worked at the Book Store on numerous occasions. The need to assist with payroll and Book Store operational needs have necessitated access to the State Office, as well as the Book Store Funds accounts. No limitations were places on access and no discrepancies were observed.

Greetings from the State Home Missions Board:

Following the resignation of Bro. Gerardo Rodriguez, the state home mission board turned the work at Una over to the Hispanics and it is no longer under the state home mission board. The board made some recommendations to the mission pastor and will continue to offer our assistance and advises in the future.

A revised and full report of the State Home Mission Joint Project Status will be given at the 2010 State Association.

Greetings from the State Home Missions work in Aiken.

To the South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptists, I want to thank the South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptist for their continued support of the mission work here in Aiken. I know that there has been a long struggle in trying to get this church to a self-supporting status. Please continue to be patient with us as we work hard toward that goal. Our debt on our building is below $70,000. Every time you send an offering in to help with this indebtedness it helps us get closer to the goal of having this building paid off. The money goes directly to the principle.

How exciting it is to see where the Lord has brought us in the past year. I believe we are seeing Southside Free Will Baptist Church make an impact in this city. We broke the all time attendance record at the church this past Easter Sunday with an attendance of 142. We have seen several folks saved and rededicate their hearts to the Lord throughout the year.

I talked to Joe Holdren for the first time in February of 2008 after my son Tyler went through the city baseball draft for 10 year old boys. God worked in a most miraculous way. I had been praying for God to put our boys on a team where we could influence the life of someone. This coach would be making the first pick for the first boy in the baseball draft. HE had already planned to pick a certain boy, but at the last second, the boy decided not to play city baseball. So Joe chose our son Tyler.

Tyler started inviting Joe's son to church and one day Joe told me that he had thought about coming to our church the next Sunday. He came the next Sunday and then became regular. Joe invited a lady that works in the baseball league. She started coming and has brought her parents and they have become regular.

Let me share a few lines from an email that she sent after visiting our church the first time: "Jim.... I very much enjoyed your service and am looking forward to this Sunday's service and activities. I have extended the invite to my parents and hope they will also be joining me. It was nice to see so many young people there and I am excited about the many fun things that your church has to offer. I am grateful to Joe for thinking of me and offering an invite. Otherwise, I would have not known about your wonderful church!"

I could share numerous stories with you that are similar in the way the Lord has worked.

We are pretty well back into averaging in the 50's. By the time we had arrived in Aiken last year the attendance had dropped to around 15.

We are thankful to God for your support. The Lord is doing great things in Aiken.
Humbly Submitted
Jim Fairchild

Hispanic Ministry Roca de Salvacion
Free Will Baptist Church

We would like to commence by thanking all the Pastors and their congregations for your endless support and prayers. Keeping in mind your needs, we beg our Lord to bless our brothers who so vigilantly work in supporting the spread of the gospel within the Hispanic Community of South Carolina. With such great faith, the body of Jesus-Christ will continue to growth within our community. My brothers, this marks the difference between those have a vision and those that do not. We thank our Lord for your love and pray that he may bless you in abundance.

The following is a summary of our current status:

This year we work on the Florence and Conway missions.

The Columbia area currently has a Pastor.

A total of 40 people were Baptist this year.

We gave 250 bibles over the year.

Every Saturday, before service, our brothers in Conway have a fellowship.

An assistant, and youth Pastor have been selected to aid with the Conway mission.

This January five students were sent to attend the Gwen Hendrix Institute. Upon their return the students will start churches in their perspective place of origin.

Within the next months we are planning on establishing a new church in Mullins, South Carolina.

In addition, we are currently awaiting our legal residential documents.

We humbly ask you to continue keeping our ministry your prayers. May our good Lord bless you and answer the petitions of your hearts.

Sincerely,
Rev. Fernando Bustamante

The South Carolina Women Active for Christ met for their 58th annual meeting at Temple Free Will Baptist Church in Darlington March 17th. The theme was "Traveling Light." Our scripture was from Psalm 119:105 and our thought was AFollowing God's Directions. Kristi Johnson, missionary to Spain gave our devotion on following God's directions for our lives by comparing the GPS B (Global Positioning System) as God's Positioning System. Our GPS is the Word and the Spirit of God. She challenged us to follow God as He directs our path. She also thanked the WAC for all of their continued support through prayers and monies given to their account as they serve in Spain.

Marjorie Workman, WNAC Executive Secretary B Treasurer sent a letter commending SC WAC for their giving of $52,657.22 for the year 2007 and congratulated SC WAC Coordinator Pam Hackett for placing 2nd in the WNAC Creative Arts Contest in both Programs and Articles division.

Home Missionary to Aiken, SC, Jim Fairchild gave a report on the mission church and passed out newsletters, prayer and faith promise cards. He thanked everyone for their continued support and prayers. Reports were given by Rev. Tim Hackett for the FWB Home for Children. Rev. Todd Smith reported on the SC foreign missionaries: the Johnsons, Mirial Gainer, the Pooles, and Carlisle Hanna. He thanked the WAC for their support of the missionaries through their special project which raised $15,064.24 to date. Patty Newton reported on the status of the Gwen Hendrix Hispanic Bible Institute and the Poores in Brazil.

Pam Hackett, SC WAC Coordinator challenged the women to support the new state project with a goal of $20,000 to be divided among the four SC State works; FWB Home for Children, SC Home Missions, Gwen Hendrix Hispanic Bible Institute and the SC State Executive Office.

The registration and credentials committee reported 32 active groups from 3 districts with a total of 356 active members. There were a total of 28 groups present at the annual meeting with 143 members and 29 visitors present with a total of 172 at the SC WAC State Meeting. A copy of the proposed SC WAC Constitution and Bylaws was handed out for all of the members to read and vote on at the next state meeting in 2009.

The SC Ladies Retreat was held at White Oak Conference Center, September 5th and 6th. The retreat theme was ABe a Good Soldier of Jesus Christ. Speakers were Mona Dukes, Geneva Poole and Pam Hackett. A special offering was taken for Bobby and Geneva Poole, our veteran missionaries to Brazil. Soldiers, past and present were honored with a special power point presentation prepared by Mona Dukes.

The next SC WAC meeting will be held at High Point Free Will Baptist Church, Lancaster, Pastor Chris Wilson.

Respectfully Submitted,
SC WAC Coordinator

SCFWB Youth Ministries Report

2008 was an exciting year for SCFWB Youth Ministries. Three events took during the year.

Teen Camp was held in June at the Anchorage at Lake Waccamaw, NC with 71 participants. Bro. Bruce Kimbrel served as Camp Evangelist and God blessed us with a good camp.

In late July 83 juniors and sponsors met a Camp Pee Dee in Marion for a week of camp. Bro. Jody Wynn served as Camp Evangelist. The Lord blessed with crowded altars nightly.

The last weekend in October we held our annual Fall Teen Retreat in Myrtle Beach. Bro. Teddy Rabon did a good job challenging our teens to live holy lives for God=s glory. We appreciate First FWB Church of Myrtle Beach allowing us to use their facilities.

Thank you for your prayers and support in 2008. We anticipate a good year in 2009.

In His Service,
Cyrus Shoffner Field Director

Report from SC State SCM, 2008

Our South Carolina Free Will Baptist youth represented our state wonderfully at the '08 Youth Conference this past July in Charleston, West Virginia. The seven churches from South Carolina with youth participating in the conference and competition were; Liberty Church, Manning, Peace Church, Florence, Horse Branch Church, Turbeville, Bay Branch Church, Timmonsville, Temple Church, Darlington, Whitney Church, Spartanburg. Thanks to these churches, pastors, and parents for their sacrifice and support in encouraging their youth to use their talents and abilities for the glory of God! Our youth competed in many Bible and Music/Art entries with eight 1st place, seven 2nd place, and seven 3rd place winners. Many more would receive excellent scores and honorable mention.

This year's NYC will take place during the National Convention in Cincinnati, OH, July 19-23. We would like for all our churches to encourage their youth to participate in this spiritually beneficial program that promotes the God given talents of our young people. The theme for the '09 conference will be "60 Seconds Alone With God". Youth may also take part in several outreach programs such as "Reach That Guy" and "Impact Cincinnati" during the conference.

This year's state competition will be July 1&2 at the Peace Church in Florence. Please feel free to call myself at 843-307-4016 or Merinda Parrish (State Competition Coordinator) at 843-659-4957 for questions or concerns. Respectfully Submitted,

SC Free Will Baptist Home for Children 2008 Report To The South Carolina State Association

God is such a good God and in control of everything. I just stand amazed at what He does for us. He comes through every time with just what we need, so allow me to say thank you for listening to Him and being obedient to His voice.

At this time we have 9 children. We count it a blessing that 11 of our children have returned home to be with their parents. Our newest addition is a 5-day-old baby boy, brought to us directly from the hospital. He is growing and doing real good. The other children are all busy and are also doing well. One of our young men is preparing to go with his class to New York City and one of our young ladies will be going on her class trip to Washington, D.C. very soon. Our two oldest boys have just completed drivers education and are very excited about that. The last report cards we received were good for the most part with a few grades needing improvement.

At our 2005 State Meeting, as you all know, we were $492,000.00 in debt, but I can now say we owe $78,446.45 and we give God all the credit for making this possible. I know we are all looking forward to this debt being paid in full. This could happen in the coming year if 8 individuals or churches would be willing to donate $10,000.00 toward erasing this debt.

Again, I would like to say thank you. We pray every day for the Lord's will to be done in our lives, the lives of our children and staff. We would love the opportunity to visit your church and share with you about our Children's Home.

God bless you,
Roy & Paula Roach, Proverbs 3:5-6
